THE PRINCE'S NURSING LEAVE PUNCH

*note: Roppongi is the location of the meeting, the "kon" is a sound effect for the bamboo dropping against stone

For days after I couldn't get out of bed, or see my baby.

Waaaaah!
I want to see him!
Let me see him!

Please make do with pictures and videos princess!

WAILING

Get these damned machines off of me!

copious amounts of blood - stark naked!

I'M DYING~
I was surrounded by 8 doctors

My blood pressure was over 180!

5 days before the birth, I was rushed to the pre-natal ER.

DOOOOOM

PRINCEESS

Humans are capable of so much life!
I'm touched!

As our baby drank my milk, he began to perk up too, and take poops.

But you know, he visited me everyday and brought me food and sweets, and I began to feel a lot better.

Every day the prince brought me Baskin Robbins ice cream to eat.

STILL WEeping

goo~

OOOH...

I was hospitalized for nearly a month.

IT WAS A MONTH FULL OF TEARS

You finally get to come home and change your clothes, and take a bath that isn't open like the one at the hospital.

WEeping

It's okay both you and our baby came home healthy, princess.

The ideal paternity leave ended after 2 days.
