Pretty Soldier Sailormoon Season 1 Summary

Tsukino Usagi is a clumsy cybaby 8th-grade student. One night, she receives a mysterious brooch from a talking cat named Luna, and she becomes able to transform into the pretty sailor-suited soldier Sailor Moon. She learns from Luna that the world is in great danger, and that to prevent its destruction she must gather together her allies and find their Princess from a past life, to protect her and her Silver Crystal from falling into the hands of the enemy. And so, Usagi begins her new life as a soldier.

As she fights against the Dark Kingdom, she slowly begins to gather her allies, other sailor soldiers like herself. They also fight together with a mysterious man called Tuxedo Mask. His real identity is Chiba Mamoru, a guy who Usagi doesn't get along with very well at first. But as they fight together, slowly but surely Usagi falls in love with him.

During the showdown with Kunzite, the last of the Four Generals, Tuxedo Mask protects Sailor Moon and is injured. Usagi becomes distressed, and transforms again. But this time, she turns into the Princess! She remembers everything from her past life. She realizes that Chiba Mamoru is the identity of her lover, who was also the Prince Endymion of the Earth Kingdom during the time of the Silver Millennium.

Realizing that Usagi has the Silver Crystal they had been searching for, she takes on the enemy Queen Metalia. Her fight with the evil Queen Metalia is a brutal one, as she is left alone. But then, the spirits of the four other soldiers, as well as Endymion, lend her power and Sailor Moon is able to defeat Queen Metalia with their extra energy. The earth is saved, and peace reigns once again...

And from there, Sailor Moon's story really takes off!
See how it unfolds next season.
