March 14th White Day

Do you know what White Day is? It's pretty easy to understand --it's just like Valentine's Day, but in reverse. For boys, Valentine's Day means getting cookies and candies from us girls. On White Day, us girls get treats! I wonder what I'll get from that dreamy guy this year on White Day...

2nd Sunday of May Mother's Day

..... my mother works as a doctor, Unfortunately I don't get to see her at home very often. So, to say "thank you" to her for all her hard work, each year I let her know how I feel about her by giving her carnations. Whenever I do get to spend time with my mother, it's always really wonderful. This year on Mother's Day, you should all show your mom just how much you appreciate her by giving her a present and doing something nice for her too.

July 7th Star Festival

The story behind the Star Festival is a pretty romantic one. Long ago, two lovers, Vega and Altair, were tragically separated from each other and were only allowed to see each other just once a year on this night. The streaming rivers of stars in the sky you can see on the Star Festival are beautiful, but maybe the beauty isn't for our sake alone. Oh, isn't the story behind the Star Festival so lovely!

Everyone, have you had a chance to celebrate 7-5-3 day yet? It's celebrated for girls turning the ages 3 and 7, and for boys turning 3 or 5 years old. Your mom and dad usually take you to a shrine for a visit. I remember going when I turned 7 years old, but unfortunately I can't remember my visit from when I was 3.

Everyone, did you get good things Christmas evening? When you're gathered around with your family enjoying cakes and presents, it really does have the feeling of a very Merry Christmas, doesn't it. Of course, Christmas Eve is also kind of romantic, too. I wonder if I'll get to spend it with my lover? But really, this isn't very lady-like talk of me at all....

Don't you just love that New Year's is a time when you can make all kinds of resolutions?! You get to dress up in your best clothes and feel really pretty and feminine, too. It's a really great feeling. Of course, if you can manage to properly keep your resolution for a whole year, that's also really great. This New Year's, I'm going to be going to our first shrine visit of the year with Chibiusa! It's going to be so much fun!

July Summer
August Break

Everyone, you like going to the beach right? As for me, I love to drive in my favorite car, racing around the coast lines. It's especially nice when a warm summer breeze swooshes past. The feeling is really amazing. Of course, I highly recommend swimming in the sea during summer vacation too. When the sun shines down over the waves, the light brilliantly sparkles and glitters. It's so pretty~

Day

A woman's hair is her life? Well then, we'll always want to keep it looking beautiful! But, did you know about "Comb Day"? Since your mother probably hasn't heard of it either, let me tell you about it! In ancient times, it was said that combs held secret powers! How mysterious.

Starting today, bird week lasts a full seven days. All those birds sure are cute! Have any of you had any experience with raising birds before? If you haven't, this week would be a great one to make some new animal friends, but as always be gentle when handling any situation with a new friend, okay! If I find out that you've been teasing your new friends, I'll come to punish you!

February 22nd Saturday*

.....

Of course, this holiday could really be celebrated on any day when cat lovers are to be found, saying "Meow Meow" to their kitties. But once a year on this day, there is a national contest where people can win the right to say that their cat is the best cat in all of Japan! Do you think that Luna would go along with this scheme if I tried to enter her?! Maybe, but then people would find out that she can talk.
