VA's Dream of Live Stage

It is the dream of all voice actors to perform on live stage. Often, the voice actors have the opportunity to discuss the inside scoop for any given performance that they usually don't have when their work is edited during post-synchronization. On top of that, fans get the opportunity to see the real faces of the voice actors on the live stage.

Tuxedo Mask's Voice Actor

Toru Furuya

His works include "Star of the Giants" (Hoshi Hyuuma), "Mobile Suit Gundam" (Amuro Ray), "Dragon Quest" (Abel), and others.

Born July 31st (a Leo), he is blood type A. His hobbies include playing guitar, using his computer, and amateur radio. His favorite sports include skiing, tennis, and wind surfing. His favorite colors are green, violet, and orange. His favorite foods are mochi and sushi. Dislikes: Japanese ginger, earthquakes.

Ladies and Gentlemen, lovers of Sailormoon! I'm so glad I was able to come today. From the bottom of my heart, I am so grateful. Isn't it strange that roses have become so expensive lately? Hah, whenever I make that voice, before it gets relaxed, it's like making fireworks go off! For as much as I have loved playing Tuxedo Mask and the future King Endymion, from this spring forward I will also be working on a new series called "Pretty Boy Soldiers", haha wouldn't that be fun, I'm just joking of course! Anyway, enjoy, and adieu!

Sailor Mars's actress

Tomizawa Michie

If you listen carefully, you can hear the sounds of spring approaching... And if you visit the florist, you can see the brilliantly colored blooms of the season coming in...

Underground, many living things are awakening after a long sleep. As spring approaches, my heart swells in anticipation, happier and happier...it's just that kind of a season. I'm so happy that today I am able to see everyone's smiling faces, it really makes me feel very glad. With all of my love and energy, thank you so much for coming.

What is "Sailormoon" to you? For me, as "Kino Makoto", well, I don't think I've really become much like the character unfortunately. But I think all of us admire her fighting spirit, her sidelong glances, her thoughts and expressions, and her honest and beautiful face, and everyone in the world wants to be living the life that she leads I think. And as the girls have been powering up between the "R" and "S" seasons, I think that their voices of power have been reaching people all over the world. The fact that I am able to meet with you, the voices of that power, makes me indescribably happy.

Sailor Venus's Actress

Thank you all so much for helping "Sailormoon" get to where it is today. The truth is, I am a huge fan of Sailormoon too. Without this series continuing forward, I don't think I'd be able to live my days normally anymore, because so much of my day revolves around "Sailormoon", it has become so personal to me and brings me such joy. Until the day is through, please enjoy the event. And of course, please continue to make this series even more powerful and popular with all of your affection!

Thank you so much for coming to today's performamnce. I really think that "Sailormoon" is the kind of story anyone can relate to. There are some complicated things in it, but when it comes down to it, if you believe in yourself, and believe in others, you'll always come out on top is the message. And really, that's a precious truth. As time goes on, I have laughed and cried with "Sailormoon", and have been so happy to have the chance to grow and learn with the sailor soldiers. Wearing a spectacular tuxedo/mask/cape combo, and always appearing out of nowhere to come to the Sailor Soldiers' rescue in times of need.... That sort of Tuxedo Mask always stuck in my mind. Why dress in such a way? How come he always shows up just in the nick of time? Without really bothering with the details, I just thought he was cool, so I want to give my all portraying Tuxedo Mask.

Kasahara Ryuuji (Kunzite)

Joined the Japan Action Club in June 1986. He performed in many projects as a JAC member. His many works include "Elizabeth" "Japanese Magazine", The TV show "Jetman" "Yokohama double suicide" and the movie "Let's go to the Hospital".

But crying is nothing to be ashamed of. Everyone can remember the time when they were children, looking up to their heroes and heroines. I spent an extraordinary time with those people and I believe they taught me what the human heart is all about.

Sailor Moon, Sailor Mercury, Sailor Mars, Sailor Jupiter, Sailor Venus

Sailormoon
If you still haven't come this far it's not science fiction
Sailormoon
Lead the mystery search
The damaged moon often like life
How I want to see it It's like lusting after a painful experience
This is a one time only chance for you to give up
Make an agreement, be steady, With this hand, in this eye
If you escape into the ends of the galaxy's temptation It's only right now, together, with a spark of love
Sailormoon
Love is surely a warp into a different dimension
Sailormoon
I'm leading you on a mystery search
The deja vu of our first meeting
I am your only person, tightly binded By your strong thread, if you reel me in I'll be close by
This is a one time only chance for you to give up
Make an agreement, be steady, With this
hand, in this eye
If it's only a mistake we're together I can't fake a hundred years I want to burn this moment, if this is love

I just had a fun idea That's what's so amazing about being a teenager
Your mood always changing That's what's so scary about being a teenager
This summer, let's go to the sea sea sea sea
Let's do that studying thing later alright
At the ocean let's get burned sea sea sea
The pain of love, for now just forget about it Isn't that good? Isn't that great?
Vacation!
Why don't we pick up some fashionable swimming suits Teenagers, complaining Everyone let's see who can get sunburnt the most
A teenager's summer

Let's do summer sea sea sea Suddenly we don't wear school uniforms
At the ocean let's show off sea sea sea
These long legs so slender in the water Isn't that good? Isn't that great?
Vacation!

This summer, let's go to the sea sea sea sea
At the ocean let's get burned sea sea sea

Avenue of Love

Lyricist: Fuyumori Kayoko
Composer: Kosaka Akiko
Aino Minako

"My first love, that was..."

Spring's new leaves lining the avenue
That first time I saw that person A cry from inside my chest Unable to move, I watched him leave The light brown avenue trees
He showed me a summersault on the moon's surface Memories of that tree lined street Hanging out that autumn day He met my gaze Even so, even so, that person Didn't say a single thing to me Now, even now, I love him He's graduated, my first love

When the five of us Sailor Soldiers are in battle, we sing this song

If we don't act before that black shadow spreads, we won't make it The flames of hatred, they're serious too if we don't wage our lives, we won't win because we don't want to see the world end we resolve ourselves for a time of battle we don't want to go, don't want to die, but we can't allow such cruelty the oath made by we five, turns to light five hearts become one beam of light Our dreams and memories may not be complete When the time comes we will understand We'll protect those we love with our own hands lift up your eyes for the time of battle because we don't want to see the
world end
we resolve ourselves for a time of battle, for a time of battle

It's unreasonable Don't wait
It's just in time, it won't end I want all of you
The two of us separated by a slide Slipping away
A pearl exposed to us
From the way you look at me My heart becomes transparent down to the core
A thousand years
I've repeated love's mysterious battle
From you comes love's moon light
I bask in it and am transformed Brilliantly, secretly, La Soldier Continuing this way hurts but With a smile we exchange goodbyes, no promises that We'll meet again tomorrow It's been 200 years but The same fate has come to meet us
The shape of your heart, softly You say it's a riddle, don't forget, remember Surrounded, encircled in a romance Love is always a mysterious battle isn't it?
I'll show you a miracle and a dream Without end, without showing my power, La Soldier A thousand years I've repeated love's mysterious battle
From you comes love's moon light
Brilliantly, secretly, La Soldier
