

Act 14 An Ending and then a Beginning

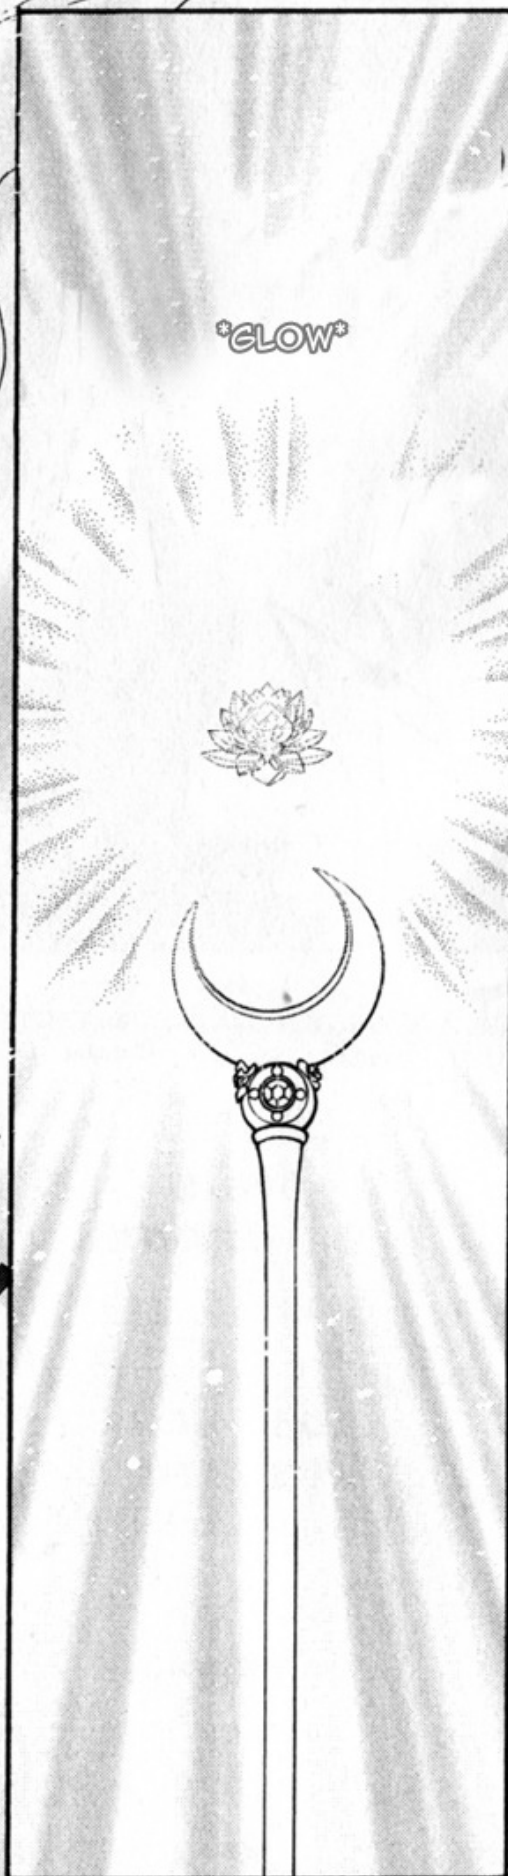

A black and white manga-style illustration of Sailor Moon. She is shown from the waist up, holding her wand high with both hands, pointing it towards a large, bright full moon in the dark sky. She has a surprised expression with wide eyes and an open mouth. Her long, flowing hair is styled in its signature swirls. The background is a dark, starry night sky with stylized, swirling clouds or energy patterns. Two speech bubbles are present: one on the right and one on the left.
